What an opportunity! This one-family owned home is located on a well-maintained, quiet street that has quick access to grocery stores, shopping and all community has to offer and just a moments drive to Mill Creek Park! It won't be winter forever and when the snow melts, you'll see the property, consisting of over a half acre, has mature trees and a spacious back yard. Inside offers a nice-sized living room with picture window. The U-shaped kitchen extends into the eat-in dining area which opens up to the enclosed back porch. 3 bedrooms and a full bath with newer shower surround complete the first floor. Under the well-loved carpet there are hardwood floors, which have been covered up since the get-go and there have never been indoor pets. The lower level is just as spacious and offers an area that could be a rec-room, a separate bedroom or office and a utility room with a commode. The basement has glass block windows and was waterproofed about 18 years ago. The 1-car garage has an additional storage area and leads to the back yard. This property is scheduled to sell via an ONLINE Auction with bidding ending Tues., Feb. 22, 2022 at 6:30 pm on the listing brokers website. SUPER LOW OPENING BID OF ONLY $60,000 (+ a 10% buyers premium for a contract price of $66,000). Don't want to wait for the auction? No problem! You can BUY IT NOW for $120,000 plus the buyers premium for a contract price of $132,000. $7,000 non-refundable down payment with the contract (or within 24 hours of the auction ending) by cash, certified check (payable to the listing broker) or wire transfer to the listing brokers account. Balance at closing within 30 days. While the Sellers grew up here, they have not occupied the property for 40+ years and can only answer the disclosures to the best of their knowledge and what is known on public records. Therefore, the property sells in its present AS IS, WHERE IS condition with no warranties expressed or implied. Any desired inspections should be done PRIOR TO bidding or a written offer. All offers to be on listing broker's non-contingent contract. Contents will be offered in a separate online auction and not to be included in the real estate purchase contract. DUAL AGENCY

Ohio law permits a real estate agent and brokerage to represent both the seller and buyer in a real estate transaction as long as this is disclosed to both parties and they both agree. This is known as dual agency. As a dual agent, a real estate agent and brokerage represent two clients whose interests are, or at times could be, different or adverse. For this reason, the dual agent(s) may not be able to advocate on behalf of the client to the same extent the agent may have if the agent represented only one client.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall:

- Treat both clients honestly;
- Disclose latent (not readily observable) material defects to the purchaser, if known by the agent(s) or brokerage;
- Provide information regarding lenders, inspectors and other professionals, if requested;
- Provide market information available from a property listing service or public records, if requested;
- Prepare and present all offers and counteroffers at the direction of the parties;
- Assist both parties in completing the steps necessary to fulfill the terms of any contract, if requested.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall not:

- Disclose information that is confidential, or that would have an adverse effect on one party's position in the transaction, unless such disclosure is authorized by the client or required by law;
- Advocate or negotiate on behalf of either the buyer or seller;
- Suggest or recommend specific terms, including price, or disclose the terms or price a buyer is willing to offer or that a seller is willing to accept;
- Engage in conduct that is contrary to the instructions of either party and may not act in a biased manner on behalf of one party.

Compensation: Unless agreed otherwise, the brokerage will be compensated per the agency agreement.

Management Level Licensees: Generally, the principal broker and managers in a brokerage also represent the interests of any buyer or seller represented by an agent affiliated with that brokerage. Therefore, if both buyer and seller are represented by agents in the same brokerage, the principal broker and manager are dual agents. There are two exceptions to this. The first is where the principal broker or manager is personally representing one of the parties. The second is where the principal broker or manager is selling or buying his own real estate. These exceptions only apply if there is another principal broker or manager to supervise the other agent involved in the transaction.

Responsibilities of the Parties: The duties of the agent and brokerage in a real estate transaction do not relieve the buyer and seller from the responsibility to protect their own interests. The buyer and seller are advised to carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express their understanding of the transaction. The agent and brokerage are qualified to advise on real estate matters. IF LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE IS DESIRED, YOU SHOULD CONSULT THE APPROPRIATE PROFESSIONAL.

Consent: By signing on the reverse side, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this form and are giving your voluntary, informed consent to the agency relationship disclosed. If you do not agree to the agent(s) and/or brokerage acting as a dual agent, you are not required to consent to this agreement and you may either request a separate agent in the brokerage to be appointed to represent your interests or you may terminate your agency relationship and obtain representation from another brokerage.

Any questions regarding the role or responsibilities of the brokerage or its agents should be directed to: attorney or to:
