1. RECAD Written Disclosure of Brokerage Services

Seller acknowledges that Broker has provided to Seller written disclosure forms for signature describing the alternative types of brokerage services that are available, and the specific types of brokerage services that are provided by Broker.

2. Dual Agency and Conflict of Interest:

Seller acknowledges that from time to time the company of the Broker/Agent may represent both the Seller and Buyer in the same transaction. This is called Limited Consensual Dual Agency and can only occur with the written consent of both the Buyer and Seller. This means that since the Company has two clients in the same transaction, there may be a limitation on the company's ability to represent either party fully and exclusively.

Seller will consider will not consider a Limited Consensual Dual Agency. Should Buyer and Seller authorize the Company to act as a "Limited Consensual Dual Agent", Seller agrees that the Limited Consensual Dual Agency Agreement shall be executed by Seller and made an integral part of the Purchase Agreement.

3. Seller's Warranty of Authority, Accuracy and Completeness of Information

Seller specifically represents and warrants that Seller has complete authority to sell property and convey title by deed. Seller agrees to convey a merchantable title; to prorate taxes, leases and/or association fees through the date of conveyance of title; to pay off and/or satisfy and resolve all public improvements, assessments, or any other encumbrances against the property unless otherwise agreed upon in writing. Seller has personally reviewed this Agreement and acknowledges that all the information in this Agreement relating to the description and physical condition of the Property were provided by Seller and are accurate and complete to the best of Seller's knowledge. Seller agrees that if title to the property is not merchantable, Broker has the right to terminate this Agreement.

If Seller has an executed purchase agreement for the Property but has not closed with the owner of title (i.e., preconstruction contracts), Seller declares that this assignment of equitable title has been approved by the holder of legal title to the Property, and any legal documents attached to the Property (covenants, HOA documents, etc.) shall not prevent transfer of title to another buyer.

Property is is not subject to Homeowner Association (HOA) fees. Seller agrees that any outstanding fees will be paid prior to or at closing.

4. Period of Agreement; Termination

This Agreement shall be effective for a period of time beginning on 2/27/2024, 20, and ending on 6/27/2024, 20 24, at 12:00 a.m., unless the expiration date is extended in writing. Either party may terminate this Agreement without cause upon seven (7) days written notice to the other party. Parties agree to extend this Agreement in writing if the Property is under contract but not closed on the expiration date.

5. Terms/Conditions on which Property is to be Offered for Sale

Seller and Broker agree that the Property shall be offered for sale on the following terms and conditions, or on such terms and conditions that Seller and Broker may subsequently agree to in writing.

(a) The price of the Property shall be $ 125,000 or any other price or terms acceptable to Seller.

If the Sales Price is over $300,000 and the seller is a non-resident of Alabama as defined by law and not otherwise exempt, current Alabama law requires that a buyer withhold a certain percentage of the sale proceeds and pay those withheld funds to the Alabama Department of Revenue.

Seller is is not a non-resident of Alabama as defined in section 40-18-86 of the Code of Alabama (1975).
