This sweet bungalow is a cozy retreat with its two-story layout and vaulted ceilings. The updated kitchen and bathrooms add a touch of modern comfort, especially with the tile flooring, marble countertops, and showers.

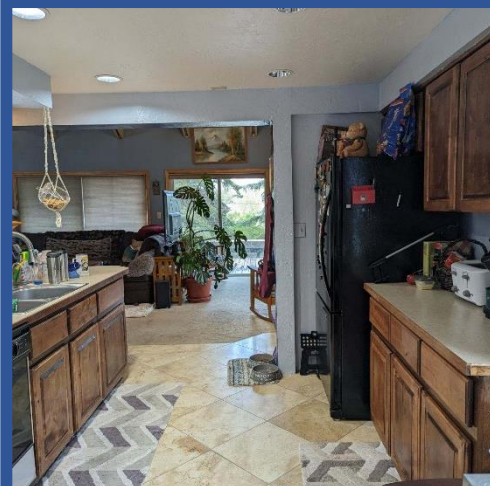

The Jack & Jill arrangement for the upstairs bathroom adds convenience for multiple users.

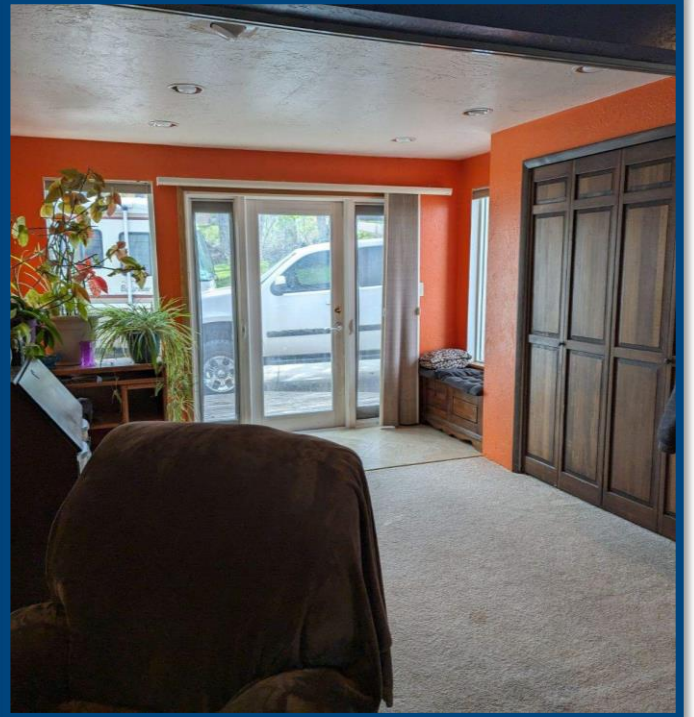

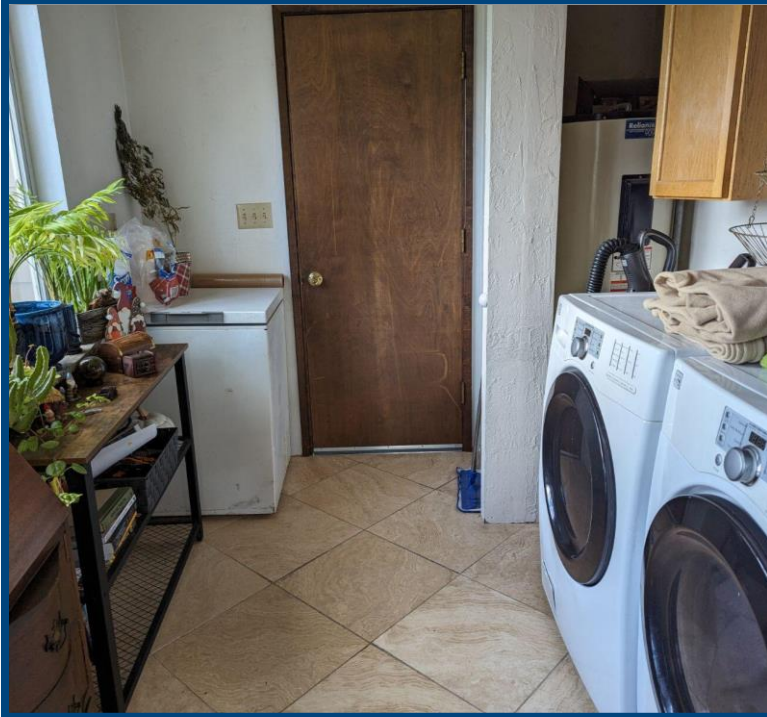

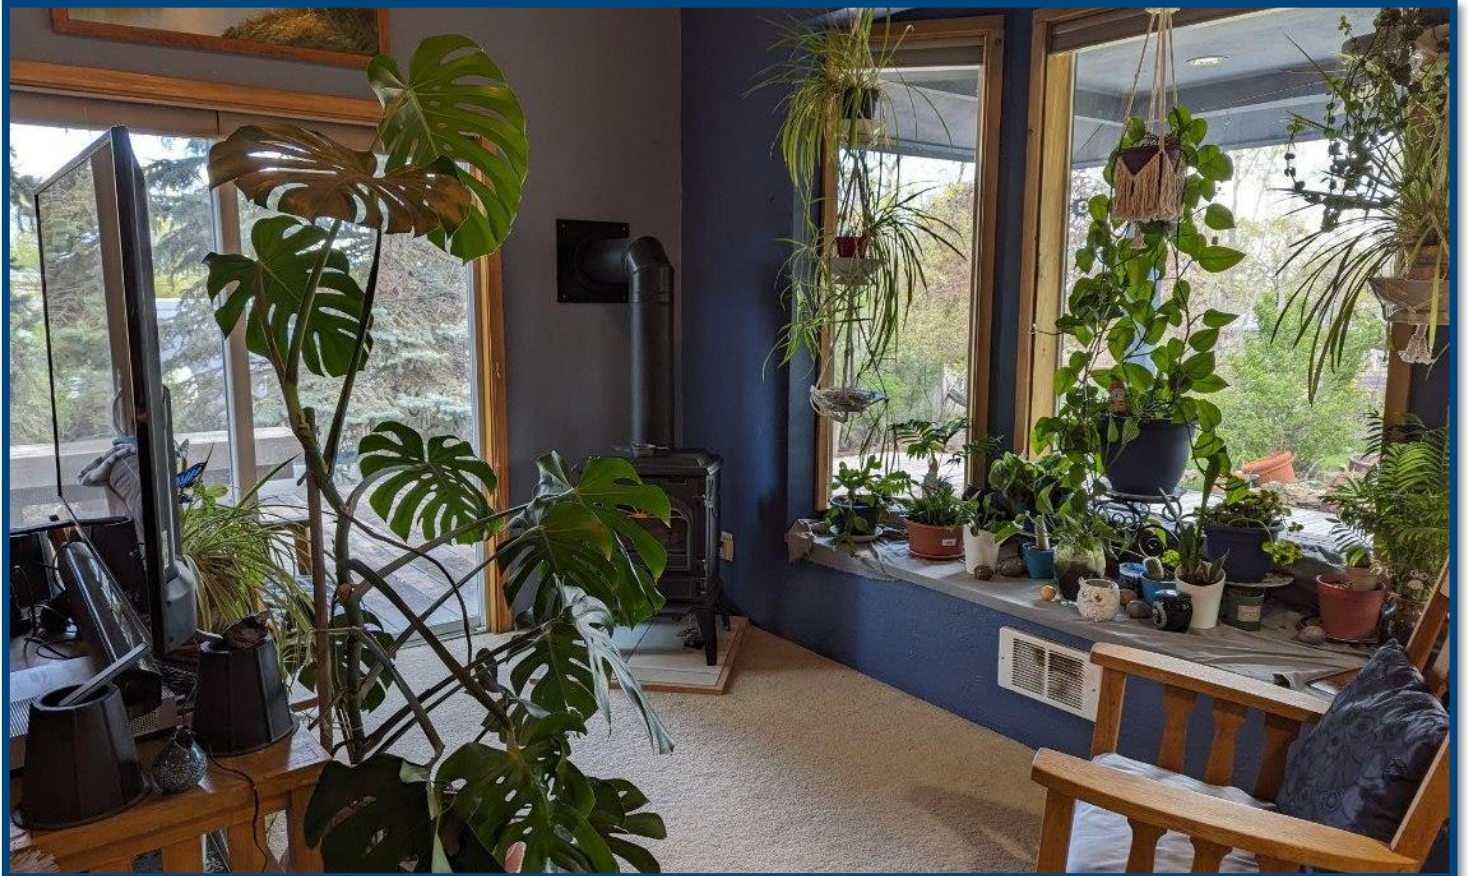

The exterior features Hardi plank siding, updated vinyl windows, and a metal roof makes maintenance a breeze, giving you more time to enjoy the park-like setting outside. The covered deck off the back and the additional deck off the side provide ample space for relaxation and entertaining, surrounded by the beauty of evergreen aspens and apple trees.

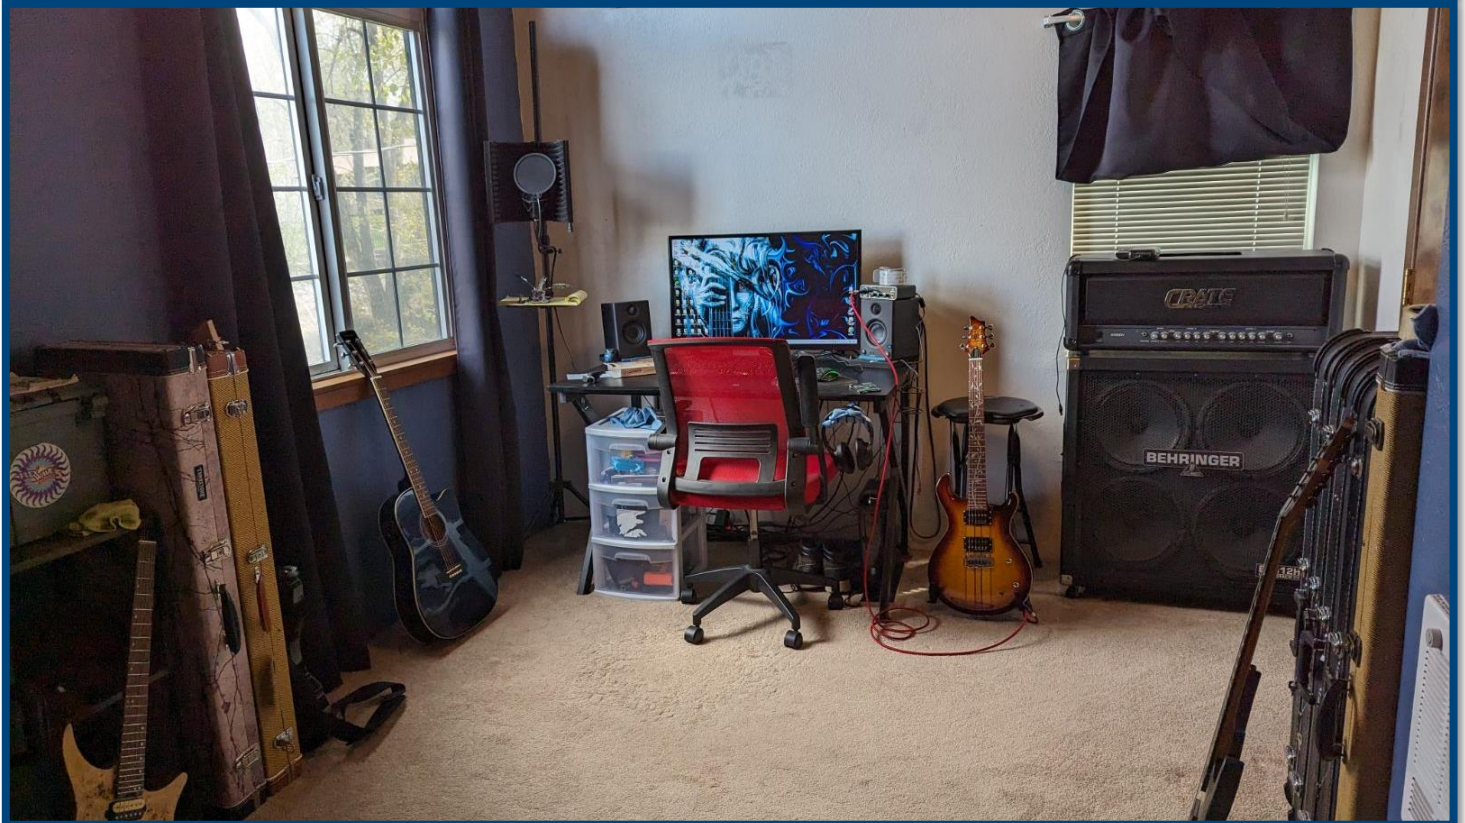

Practical amenities like the storage shed, paved driveway, extra parking, and RV hookup make this bungalow not only charming but also functional for everyday living. And being located on a corner lot on the hill in Hines likely offers some lovely views as well. Sounds like a wonderful place to call home!
