

RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY CONDITION DISCLOSURE REPORT

The Uniform Property Condition Disclosure Act (Connecticut General Statutes Section 20-327b) requires the seller of residential property to provide this disclosure to the prospective purchaser prior to the prospective purchaser's execution of any binder, contract to purchase, option, or lease containing a purchase option. These provisions apply to the transfer of residential real property of four dwelling units or less, including cooperatives and condominiums, made with or without the assistance of a licensed broker or salesperson. The seller will be required to credit the purchaser with the sum of $500 at closing if the seller fails to furnish this report (Connecticut General Statutes Section 20-327c).

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

(A) Responsibilities of Real Estate Brokers. This report in no way relieves a real estate broker of his or her obligations under the provisions of section 20-328-5a of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies to disclose any material facts. Failure to do so could result in punitive action taken against the broker, such as fines, suspension or revocation of license.

(B) Statements Not to Constitute a Warranty. Any representations made by the seller on the written residential property condition disclosure report shall not constitute a warranty to the buyer.

(C) Nature of Disclosure Report. This Residential Property Condition Disclosure Report is not a substitute for inspections, tests, and other methods of determining the physical condition of the property.

(D) Information on the Residence of Convicted Felons. Information concerning the residence address of a person convicted of a crime may be available from law enforcement agencies or the Department of Public Safety.

(E) Building Permits and Certificates of Occupancy. Prospective buyers should consult with the municipal building official in the municipality in which the property is located to confirm that building permits and certificates of occupancy have been issued for work on the property.

(F) Home Inspection. Buyers should have the property inspected by a licensed home inspector.

(G) Concrete Foundation. Prospective buyers may have a concrete foundation inspected by a licensed professional engineer who is a structural engineer for deterioration of the foundation due to the presence of pyrrhotite.

(H) Buyer's Certification. The buyer is urged to carefully inspect the property and, if desired, to have the property inspected by an expert. The buyer understands that there are areas of the property for which the seller has no knowledge and this disclosure statement does not encompass those areas. The buyer also acknowledges that the buyer has read and received a signed copy of this statement from the seller or seller's agent.
