Notice to Agents: This seller is working with us under a limited-service agreement, meaning they'll handle most aspects of the sale themselves. Don't worry, though! We're a full-service real estate company based in St. Petersburg, FL, and we're here to help you every step of the way. Our technology streamlines communication. You can easily request showings or submit offers through our system, which will reach both the seller and our broker, Keith Gordon, right away. You'll get confirmation on showings within minutes and offers will go directly to the seller for their consideration. Once a contract is in place, Keith's team will handle everything with the title company to ensure a smooth closing.
