This clause shall survive performance and transfer of title. Seller and Broker acknowledge that Broker has not visited the Property and has no knowledge as to any facts regarding any and all required disclosures. All information, including, but not limited to photographs, sketches, renderings, plans, floor-plans, etc., uploaded to the MLS Services, have been provided solely by Seller. Broker has only entered information into the MLS Service based on the information provided by Seller in good faith without verifying its authenticity, accuracy and/or veracity.

- a. Mediation: The parties agree to negotiate in good faith in an effort to resolve any dispute related to this Listing that may arise between the parties. If the dispute cannot be resolved by negotiation, the dispute will be submitted to mediation. The parties to the dispute will choose a mutually acceptable mediator and will share the cost of mediation equally.

b. Severability: If a court finds any clause in this Listing invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Listing will not be affected and all other provisions of this listing will remain valid and enforceable.

c. Attorney's fees: If Seller or Broker is a prevailing party in any legal proceeding brought as a result of a dispute under this Listing or any transaction related to or contemplated by this Listing, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover from the non prevailing party all costs of such proceeding and reasonable attorney's fees

8. Limitation of liability:

a. Broker is not responsible or liable in any manner for personal injury to any person or for loss of or damage to personal or real property, or person, including but not limited to injuries or damages caused by:

- (1) Third parties, including, but not limited to, associates, appraisers, inspectors, contractors, brokers and prospective buyers, may have access to, and take videos and photographs of, the interior of the Property.
- (2) acts of third parties (for example, vandalism or theft);
- (3) freezing water pipes;
- (4) a dangerous condition on the Property; or
- (5) the Property's non-compliance with any law or ordinance.

b. Whether attributable to use of a key safe/lock-box, a showing of the Property, or otherwise, seller agrees:

- (1) to take reasonable precautions to safeguard and protect valuables that might be accessible during showings of the property;
- (2) to obtain insurance to protect against these risks. Broker does not maintain insurance to protect Seller.
- (3) Persons visiting the Property may not be aware that they could be recorded by audio or visual devices installed by Seller (such as nanny cams and hidden security cameras) and may claim an invasion of privacy. Seller is advised to post notices disclosing the existence of security devices.
- (4) Owner agrees to maintain hazard or other insurance, current as of the Effective Date, during the course of this Agreement until the Property is sold or leased.

9. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION: During this Listing or after it ends, Broker may not knowingly disclose information obtained in confidence from Seller except as authorized by Seller or required by law. Broker may not disclose to Seller any confidential information regarding any other person Broker represents or previously represented except as required by law.

10. ACCESS TO THE PROPERTY:

a. Authorizing access to the Property means giving permission to another person to enter the Property, disclosing to the other person any security codes necessary to enter the Property, and lending a key to the other person to enter the Property, directly or through a keybox. To facilitate the showing and sale of the Property, Seller instructs Broker to authorize other brokers, their associates, inspectors, appraisers, and contractors to access the Property at reasonable times.

b. Keybox: A keybox is a locked container placed on the Property that holds a key to the Property. A keybox makes it more convenient for brokers, their associates, inspectors, appraisers, and contractors to show, inspect, or repair the Property. The keybox is opened by a special combination, key, or programmed device so that authorized persons may enter the Property, even in Seller's absence. Using a keybox will probably increase the number of showings, but involves risks (for example, unauthorized entry, theft, property damage, or personal injury). Neither the Association of REALTORS® nor MLS requires the use of a keybox.

- (1) Seller Authorizes a key box to be placed on the property
