

TENNESSEE RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY CONDITION DISCLOSURE

The Tennessee Residential Property Disclosure Act states that anyone transferring title to residential real property must provide information about the condition of the property. This completed form constitutes that disclosure by the seller. This is not a warranty, or a substitute for any professional inspections or warranties that the purchasers may wish to obtain. Buyers and sellers should be aware that any sales agreement executed between the parties will supersede this form as to any obligations on the part of the seller to repair items identified below and/or the obligation of the buyer to accept such items "as is."

Instructions to Seller

Complete this form yourself and answer each question to the best of your knowledge. If an answer is an estimate, clearly label it as such. The seller hereby authorizes any agent representing any party in this transaction to provide a copy of this statement to any person or entity in connection with any actual or anticipated sale of the subject property.
