19 Zuni Trail

PO Box 69

Datil, NM 87821

Price: $250,000

This property offers potential not only for personal use but also for a business venture. Among its features are a 3,000-square-foot shop, three wells and a small cabin. The shop includes a front room that previously functioned as the Cable Springs Store, serving the local community with essential goods.

Located on 10.97 acres of fully fenced land, the property lies in the mountainous region southwest of Datil, offering stunning views of the Alegres, Wallace Mesa, and Horse Mountains. Its proximity to Hunting Unit 15, known for trophy-sized elk, mule deer, bear, mountain lion, and smaller game species, adds to its appeal.

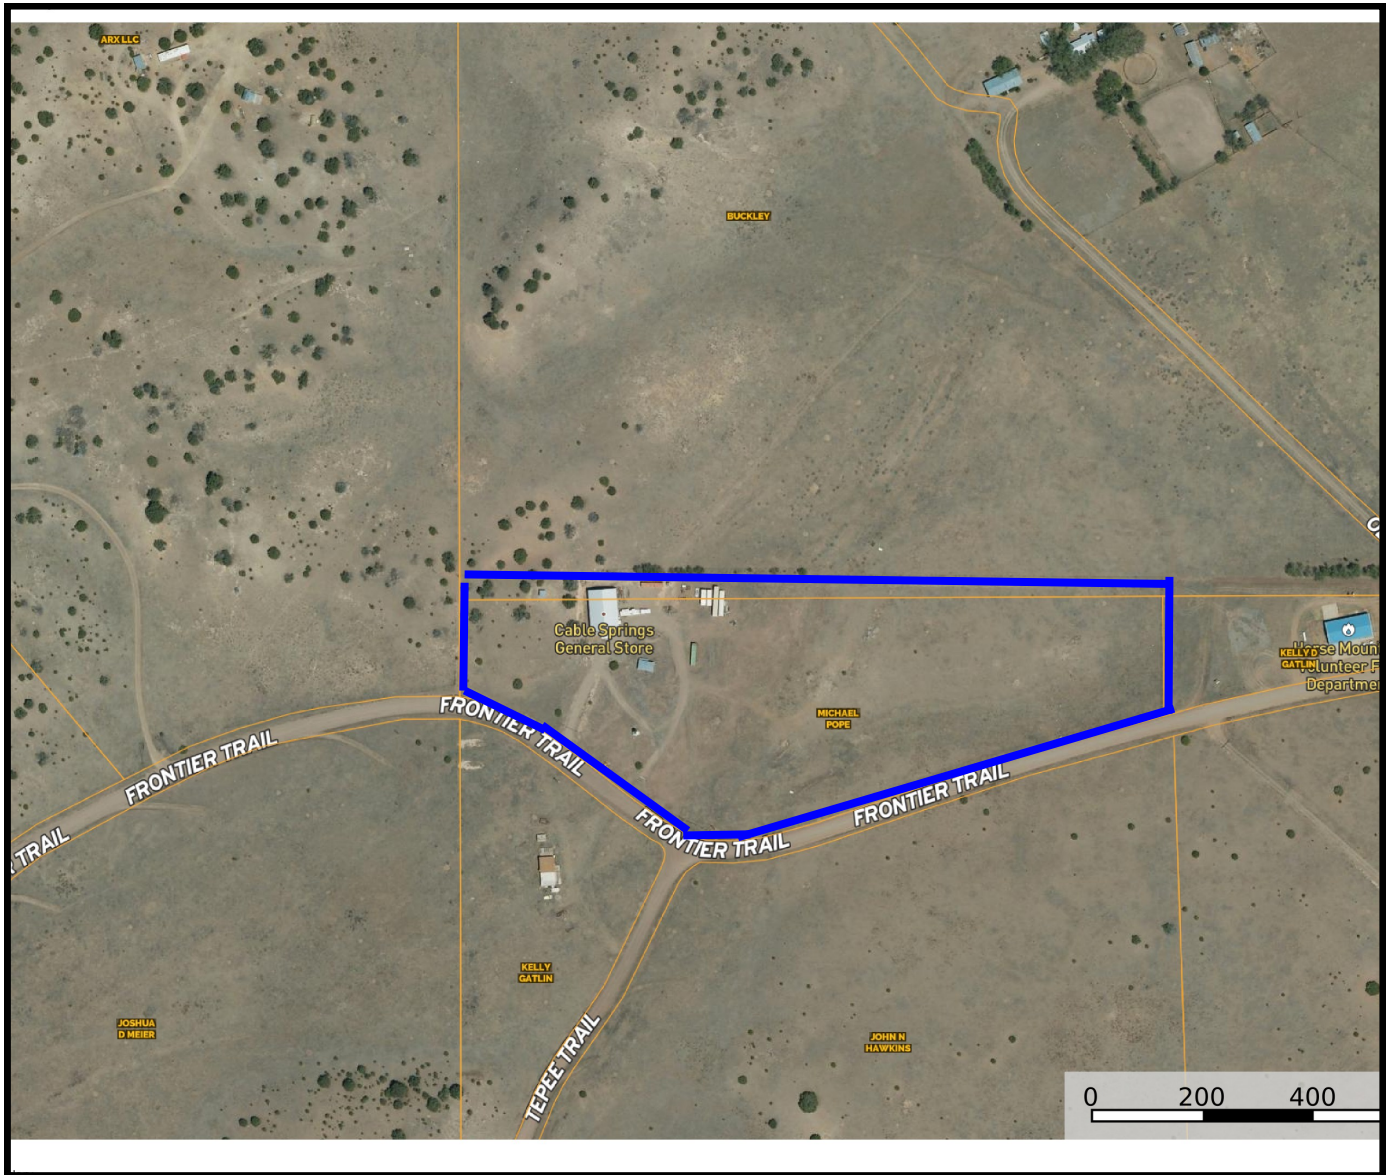

Overall, the combination of its natural beauty and existing improvements makes this property a promising candidate for those interested in both residential and business opportunities. Whether used as a personal retreat or a commercial enterprise, it offers a unique blend of location, resources, and possible business potential.
