Nestled approximately 22 miles southwest of Datil, NM, this unique property boasts 10.37 fenced acres in the serene Last Frontier Subdivision. Just two miles south, the Horse Mountain Wilderness Area offers limitless opportunities for hiking, horseback riding, and wildlife observation. The property features an idyllic two-story tiny house cabin designed to blend seamlessly with its natural surroundings. This cabin includes one bedroom, one and a half baths with ample storage solutions seamlessly integrated throughout, enhancing both functionality and convenience for everyday living.

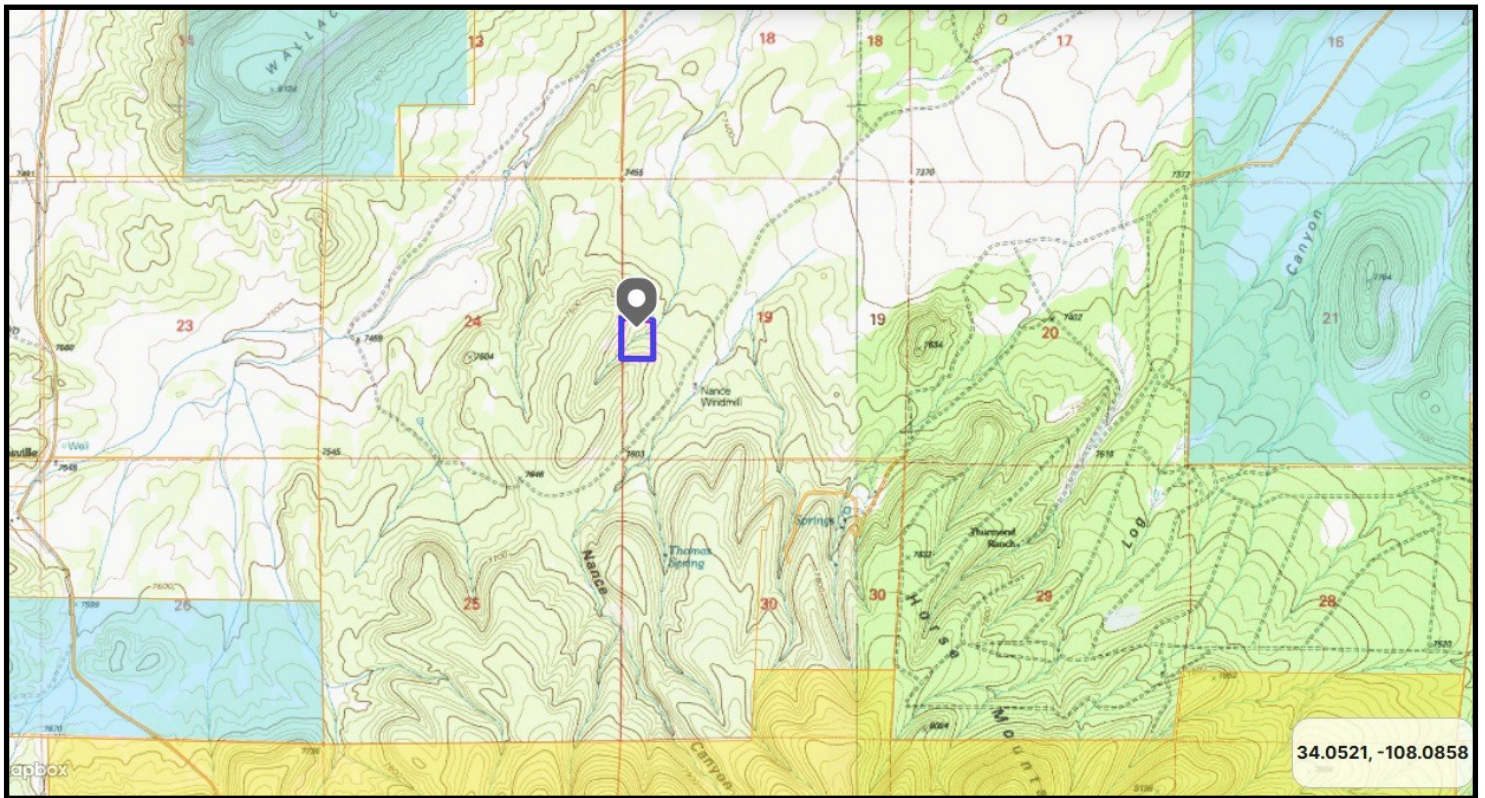

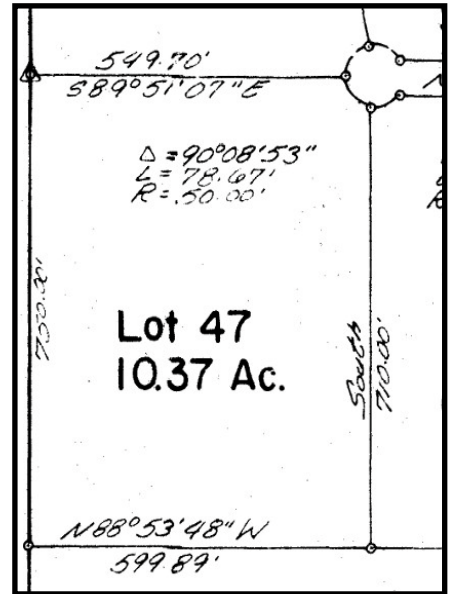

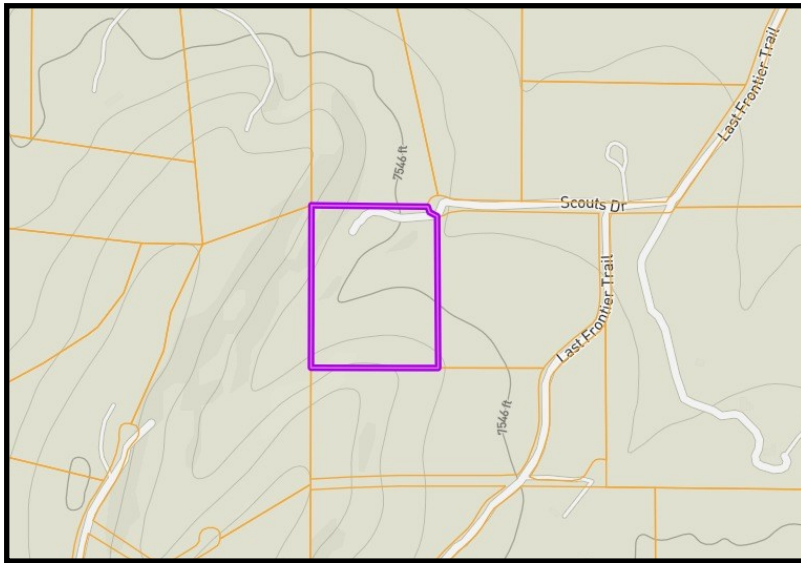

The wooden decking on the upper level offers stunning vistas of the surrounding mountain ranges, while the lower level hosts a covered deck, perfect for relaxation. The home is constructed with durability in mind, featuring a solid cement foundation and 2x6 construction with filled concrete blocks, ensuring it stands resiliently against the elements. The interior is heated by a wood stove capable of warming the entire house.

Despite its remote location, the property is equipped with modern conveniences such as electricity, high-speed DSL internet, phone service, and a private well. This secluded oasis is free from stress and smog, providing remarkable starry night views. With its mountainous terrain and ample privacy, this property is perfectly poised as an ideal getaway, ready for immediate move-in.
